FOREIGN NEWS.

Moſco, April 27. Yeſterday a Manifeſto of the Czarina was publiſhed here, ſetting forth the Reaſons for baniſhing Prince Wafili Dolgorouki, who, with the late Czar's Bride, and the reſt of his Children and Family, was ſent hence, the 20th paſt, to the remoteſt of his Eſtates; and alſo Prince Alexis Dolgorouki, who, with his whole Family, is likewiſe in Diſgrace; and Zeriel, John and Alexander Dolgorouki are all baniſhed to different Places. It is ſaid, that Prince Baſilowitz Dolgorouki, who went to Courland in Quality of Firſt Deputy, to preſent the Crown to the preſent Czarina, is going to Siberia, as Governor of that Province, and General Dolgorouki's Brother as Governor of Aſtracan; but the ſaid General is hitherto continued in his Poſt. Her Czarian Majeſty is in good health, and every thing is getting ready for her Coronation; but the Day is not as yet fixed for that Solemnity.——Baron Oſterman has Orders to continue his Conferences with the Embaſſadors of Shah Thamaſip, and with the Envoys of the Calmuck Tartars, and of the Coſſacks, to whom the Czarina will not give Audience till after her Coronation. They are actually calling to Account all thoſe who had any Share in the Management of the Finances during the Reigns of the Czarina Catherine, and of the late Czar; and they are accuſed of having embezled or miſapplied very conſiderable Sums, which were ſet apart for Payment of the Ruſſian Troops on the Frontiers of Perſia, and of which Money it is violently ſuſpected much has been diverted to other uſes. The report revives of forming a Camp of 24,000 Men near Riga, and to reinforce conſiderably the Number of the Troops now in Courland. Four new Fregates are fitting out at Petersburg, on which 2000 Iron Cannon, and a great Quantity of Balls, are to be put on board; and it is believed the whole is deſigned for Spain.——Here, and at Petersburg, has been publiſhed her Czarian Majeſty's Declaration, by which ſhe grants to all Foreigners, who will ſettle in her Dominions, and eſpecially in the Provinces conquered from Perſia, the free Exerciſe of their Religion, and leave to build Churches and Schools for the Inſtruction of their Children, the Jews only excepted. She has promiſed to grant their Liberty to all Priſoners of State, who have been taken into Cuſtody, or have been baniſhed into Siberia, on Condition that they ſhall go and ſettle with their Families at Aſtracan or at Derbent, where her Majeſty deſigns to give them Employments, as well Civil as Military. Baron Schaffiroff, who was Vice-Chancellor of this Empire before his Diſgrace, is now appointed Super Intendant of the City of Archangel, and of the Commerce carried on there.

Vienna, May 13. Two of the Imperial Regiments now in Lombardy, are to enter into the Territory of Parma. It is ſaid our Court has thought fit to take this precaution, upon Advice that the Duke of Parma ſeems inclined to embrace the Party of the Allies of Seville.

Rome, May 6. On Monday the Marqueſs de Montelion, Embaſſador of Spain, went with a numerous Retinue to the Conclave, where he had Audience of the Cardinals, Chiefs of Orders: His Excellency diſpatched afterwards an Expreſs to Madrid, with the reſult of what had paſſed in that Audience. The Marquis d'Ormea, Miniſter of the King of Sardinia, diſpatched likewiſe the ſame Day an Expreſs to Turin. It is pretended, that the Intrigues of the laſt of theſe Courts were the occaſion that Cardinal Ruffo was not elected Pope about the beginning of the Conclave, tho' he was ſupported by the Intereſt of the whole German Faction. The Cardinals Corſini and Davia have alſo ſtood fair to be elected; and it is even ſaid, that the Clementine and Benedictine Factions joined in favour of the laſt of them. They talk now of Cardinal Pico de la Mirandola, and it is aſſured that Cardinal Cinfuegos has ſent an Expreſs to Vienna, to know whether the Election of that Cardinal would be agreeable to his Imperial Majeſty. It is the general Opinion, that no Pope will be elected before the return of an Expreſs whom the Sacred College has ſent to Spain, with Letters for the Nuncio Aldobrandini, with Orders, as it is ſaid, to that Nuncio, to ſend an Apoſtolic Notary to Lisbon, to invite, in Preſence of Witneſſes, the Portugueſe Cardinal's to come to the Conclave, in order to take from them all manner of Pretence of proteſting againſt an Election that may be made in their Abſence.

Genoa, May 6. They write from Baſtia, in Corſica, that the Inhabitants of the ſeveral Villages of Rebels had ſent Deputies to the Commiſſary-General, to make their Submiſſion to the Government, and accept of the Amneſty that has been offered them.

Amſterdam, May 23. The Court of Moſco is, we hear, under no ſmall Apprehenſions of a War with the Ottomans. We have advice from the Texel, that 6 of our Eaſt India Company's Veſſels that came from Batavia, are arrived in that Port, viz the Caſtricum, the Leyden, and the Stadwyk, for the Chamber of Amſterdam; the Hilgenda and the Magdalen for that of Enkhuyſen, and the Gertrude for that of Horn: Theſe Veſſels came in Company with 5 others, namely, the Wolferdyk and Steenhoven for Zeland, the Wargeronde and the Spiering for Delft, and the Grunſwaerd for Rotterdam, who have continued their Voyage to the Ports for which they were bound. All thoſe Veſſels are richly laden.——They write from Conſtantinople, that the Printing-Office erected there has met with all the Succeſs that could be expected. The firſt Book printed in it, was an Arabic Dictionary, tranſlated into the Turkiſh Language, by Ovancouli, in 2 Volumes in Folio; the firſt containing 666 Pages, and the ſecond 756. In the Preface they give a great Encomium to the Grand Vizier, for the ſhare he had in the eſtabliſhment of that Printing-houſe. There is prefixed, the Privilege granted by the Grand Signor to Zaid, Son of Mahomet Effendi, formerly Ambaſſador in France, to print all ſorts of Books, except ſuch as treat of the Mahometan Religion. There are likewiſe inſerted the Mufti Abdala's Imprimatur, and a Treatiſe of the Uſe this Printing-houſe will be of to the Turks.

Paris, May 24. Our laſt Letters from Conſtantinople import, that on the 9th of January Marquis de Villeneuve, Ambaſſador of France, began his magnificent Feaſt upon account of the Birth of the Dauphin, which laſted three Days. Thoſe Letters add, that the Abbot Fourmont was gone to viſit the Towns of the Morea; and that the Abbot Sevin was ſet out on his return to France, with two Cheſts of curious Manuſcripts in Greek, Turkiſh, Arabic, and Armenian, of which laſt there is not yet one in the King's Library. We have ſince heard of this Abbot's arrival at Marſeilles, where he is performing Quarentine.——Mr. Thomas, one of his Majeſty's Engineers, made lately, in the Preſence of ſeveral Commiſſaries, a Proof of 6 Pieces of Cannon, and 6 Mortars, caſt for the India Company. Theſe Guns are of a new Invention, and carry 18 Pound Balls; and tho' they are very conſiderably lighter than ordinary Cannon, yet they carry much farther with leſs Powder. The Company deſign them all for the Louiſiana.——The Marquis Spinola has lately had another private Conference with Cardinal de Fleury, to haſten, it is ſaid, the Expedition of Italy, in favour of the Infante Don Carlos. The Miniſters of Spain have likewiſe made new and preſſing Inſtances on the ſame Subject: And as our Troops are actually on their March to embark, in order to join thoſe of Spain, it will not be long before we ſhall know the Succeſs of this projected Expedition. Nevertheleſs the Court ſeems not yet to deſpair of preventing an open Rupture by an amicable Accommodation with the Emperor, and for this reaſon it is that General Spinola has deferred his departure for Granada, and the Lord Harrington his for London, till the return of an Expreſs who was ſent the 16th to Spain, and of another lately ſent to Vienna. What ſeems to ſtrengthen the Opinion of thoſe who believe there is a Negotiation on Foot to terminate the Differences in an amicable Way, is, that Count Conigſegg, who arrived here from Spain on Monday laſt, will, we are well aſſured, ſtay ſome time in this City, and that he has already been twice at Fontainbleau.

Wedneſday arrived the Mail from France.

Moſco, April 28. Several Tartar Princes, under the Protection of the late Czar, arrived here laſt Week, to pay Homage to the Czarina, and aſſure her of their Fidelity. It has been reſolved in Council, to call in all the Species of Gold and Silver, and to new coin them of the ſame Value; and Mints are to be erected in all the principal Towns, and to have their particular Marks. We are aſſured, the Czarina deſigns to change moſt of the Governors, and to reward the Lords of her Court who were the moſt inſtrumental in her Election. The Princeſs of Mecklenburg, Daughter to the Duke of that Name, and Niece to her Czarian Majeſty, has lately had ſeveral Paroxyſms of a violent Fever: It is feared ſhe will have the Small-Pox; of which Diſtemper abundance have died here very lately. The Czarina has confirmed the Privilege of Coining, formerly granted to the City of Riga by Queen Chriſtina of Sweden; but, on condition, that the Money there coined ſhall bear her Czarian Majeſty's Effigies, and ſhall be current in Livonia only.

Madrid, May 9. Our laſt Letters from Majorca adviſe, that a Genoeſe Pink, which had been taken by a Barbary Corſair, and had 52 Moors on board her, having caſt Anchor, the beginning of this Month, within ſight of Port Mahon, Captain James Planels, commonly called El Cid, then in Harbour in a ſmall Veſſel with only 13 Men and a Boy, reſolved to attack her; which he did with ſo much Bravery, that he made himſelf Maſter of her, after a Fight of 3 Hours, wherein 15 Africans were killed and 37 made Slaves, without the loſs of one Spaniard. On the 11th, he came into the Port of Palma, with his Prize, where the 2 Ships are performing Quarentine. Letters are arrived at Cadiz from Buenos Ayres, by which we learn, that Silver was very ſcarce in that Country, by reaſon the Governor had forbid any to be brought from Potoſi, or Goods to be ſent thither: That the Town was glutted with European Commodities, brought from the Portugueſe Settlements at Nova Colona.

Paris, May 27. The 17th paſt, ſomewhat late at night, ſome young Engliſh Gentlemen coming from a Tavern near the Hotel de Conde, pretty warm with Liquor, had a Quarrel with the Servants of Count de Charolois, who was going home; and ſhewing ſome diſreſpect to that Prince, 3 of them were ſecured; but the reſt got away.

HOME NEWS.

Friday, May 15. Mr. William Rhodes, one of the Executors of Mr. Henry Rhodes, late Bookſeller in Fleetſtreet, deceaſed, paid, on Thurſday laſt, the Sum of 1000 l. to the Widow Bredmare, purſuant to an Order of the Court of Delegates, and had the Probat of the Will delivered to him, with a 2d Sentence for the Confirmation of the ſaid Will.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to ſignify, that he will review the 3 Regiments of Guards in Hyde Park, the 8th of June next; and all neceſſary Preparations are making for that purpoſe, by virtue of an Order from the Right Hon the Earls of Scarborough and Dunmore with the Hon. Sir Charles Wills, Colonels of the ſaid Regiments.

Thomas Robinſon, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Thirſk in Yorkſhire, and Secretary to the Embaſſy in France, is ſet out from Paris to Vienna, on Affairs of Importance.

We are aſſured, that the report of Mr. Aldworth of Iſlington having ſold his famous Piece of Antiquity, the Dagger with which Sir William Walworth, Lord Mayor of London, killed Watt Tyler, is intirely groundleſs; he deſigning never to part with ſo valuable a Curioſity.

His Excellency Signor Galvas, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Portugal, went hence about a Month since, to Paris, hoping to find Relief, for a dangerous Cancer in his Neck, from the French Surgeons; but they having given him over as incurable, he is returned to Calais to embark there for Lisbon. His Secretary is left here to take Care of the Affairs of Portugal

Thursday evening last came on a hearing of an Appeal before the Committee of Council at the Cockpit, between Mr. Crow, a noted Planter at Barbadoes, and Governor Hunter, on account of some Lands that were distrained for the use of the said Governor. It was given in favour of Mr. Crow; but another Cause arising in prosecution of the Appeal, another Committee is required to determine the same, which is appointed for Thursday next.

As did Major Harriſon, of Colonel Newton's Regiment.

And the new born Son and Heir of Sir Peter Soames, Bart.

Tueſday, died at his Houſe in the Minories, Mr. Dodſon, a Tinman, reputed worth 30,000 l.

As did, the ſame night in Warwick-lane, Holborn, the Wife of Counſellor Carlton, Siſter of Sir Thomas Reynolds of Lelam in the County of Middleſex, Bart.

As did likewiſe, laſt Week, at Twickenham, aged near 16 Months, the only Son, of the Hon. Pattee Byng, Eſq; Treaſurer of the Navy.

They write from Edinburgh of May [illegible], that Tueſday laſt, departed this Life, of a lingring Sickneſs, Alexander Fowlis of Rotho, Eſq; at his Seat of Rotho, in Mid-Lothian, a kind hoſpitable Gentleman, a loyal Subject and Lover of his Country: He was a Widower, and left Iſſue, by a Daughter of the late Lord Colington, Senator of the College of Juſtice, one Son.

They write from Dublin, May 12, that Thurſday laſt, a Petition was preſented to the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chancellor, by the Attorneys of the Court of Common Pleas, in behalf of Mr. Daniel Kimberly, now under Sentence of Death; and we are aſſured, that ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction are interceding with their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices for his Pardon.
